

Institute level Policies for M & I component

CCET -M30 For Engineering	(M) component 30 Marks , the policy has been decided as below: For Sem IV, VI, VII : Test of 25 marks will be held on every Monday from 9:15 to 10:15 (the detailed scheduled will be declared by the concerned department) For arranging such test separate stationery will not be provided. Instead, the faculties will ask the students to prepare one foolscap book for such tests. The result of such test must be declared within five working days. Preliminary exam of 70 marks The detailed schedule & syllabus will be displayed by the concerned department 15 days before the commencement. For Semester II: A Test will be arranged of 10 to 25 marks on every day from 9:30 to 10:45 (depending upon the subject teacher) on the topic they have taught during week. (The first test in all the subjects will commence after the first 15 days teaching). The test of mathematics will be held preferably on Saturday. For arranging such test separate stationery will not be provided. Instead, the faculties will ask the students to prepare one foolscap book for such tests. Preliminary exam of 70 marks The detailed schedule & syllabus will be displayed by the First Year Coordinator 15 days before the commencement of exam. The final calculation of 30 marks (M component) will be based on: 05 marks for Attendance (regularity) in Test 10 marks for Performance in test (as a whole) 15 marks for Preliminary exam marks
CCET -I50 For Engineering	CEC (I component 50n Marks) the policy has been decided as below: There is no change in policy decided previously. 20 marks for Attendance, 15 marks for Term Work /Assignments 15 marks should be calculated on the basis of performance in preliminary exam

CCET –MBA -M30 For MBA	(M) component 30 Marks , the policy has been decided as below: For Sem IV : Test of 25 marks will be held on every Monday from 10:30 to 11:30 (the detailed scheduled will be declared by the CC) For arranging such test separate stationery will not be provided. Instead, the faculties will ask the students to prepare one foolscap book for such tests. The result of such test must be declared within five working days. Preliminary exam of 70 marks The detailed schedule & syllabus will be displayed by the CC 15 days before the commencement. For Semester II: A Test will be arranged of 10 to 25 marks on every day from 9:30 to 10:30 (depending upon the subject teacher) on the topic they have taught during week. (The first test in all the subjects will commence after the first 15 days teaching). For arranging such test separate stationery will not be provided. Instead, the faculties will ask the students to prepare one foolscap book for such tests. Preliminary exam of 70 marks The detailed schedule & syllabus will be displayed by the CC, 15 days before the commencement of exam. The final calculation of 30 marks (M component) will be based on:  05 marks for Attendance (regularity) in Test 10 marks for Performance in test (as a whole) 15 marks for Preliminary exam marks
CCET – MBA - I50 For MBA	CEC (I component 50n Marks) the policy has been decided as below:  20 marks 5th Module Project (10-Project, 10-Presentation) 20 marks Attendance 10 marks should be calculated on the basis M Component

Dr K H Wandra
Director(Academic)

Dr G R Kulkarni
Principal

Date : 21/01/2012